

Across

1. The overall general upward price movement of goods and services in an economy
8. The ability to be sold or transferred to another party as a form of payment
9. A period of general economic decline; typically defined as a decline in GDP for two or more consecutive quarters
10. The amount of a particular economic good or service that a consumer or group of consumers will want to purchase at a given price
13. One of the three factors of production
16. An accounting record made at the end of the accounting period
19. or a company, this is the total amount of money received by the company for goods sold or services provided during a certain time period
20. Decisions by the President and Congress, usually relating to taxation and government spending, with the goals of full employment, price stability, and economic growth
24. Securities representing equity ownership in a corporation, providing voting rights, and entitling the holder to a share of the company's success through dividends and/or capital appreciation
25. The action of promoting and selling of products or services
26. An accounting book of final entry

Down

2. A document issued by a company once a year containing information on its performance
3. Profit paid to shareholders
4. A branch of economics concerned with resource allocation as well as resource management, acquisition and investment
5. A table containing elements in rows and columns
6. Current assets minus current liabilities. Working capital measures how much in liquid assets a company has available to build its business
7. Profit held by the company
11. A bond issued in Britain by a foreign company, often denominated in British pounds
12. An economy where supply and price are regulated by the government rather than market forces
14. A financial instrument whose characteristics and value depend upon the characteristics and value of an underlier, typically a commodity, bond, equity or currency
15. A folder used to store documents on a shelf
17. The quantifiable likelihood of loss or less-than-expected returns
18. Something that happens periodically, i.e. on a regular basis
21. The world's first free market capitalist, author of The Wealth of Nations
22. The annual rate of return on an investment, expressed as a percentage
23. An estimate of revenue and expenditure for a time period

Copyright © 2000-2023 Chaiban Dictionaries & Center for Arabization & Unification of Terminology. All Rights Reserved.

